

Rotary Club To Hold Reception

The Halifax Rotary Club will hold an informal reception and buffet supper at the Lord Nelson Hotel this evening, in honor of Arthur Lagueux, President of Rotary International, and Mrs. Lagueux.

Toast to the President of Rotary International will be proposed by C. J. Burchell, third Vice-President, Rotary International, 1925-26.

Following the reception, the party will visit the Waegwoltic Club for musical entertainment and dancing.

Tuesday morning, Mr. Lagueux and party will visit the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron to see the start of the Prince of Wales Cup Race, and points of interest in Halifax Harbor. A motor drive through the city is also planned for the party.

While President Lagueux is attending the Rotary luncheon starting at 1 p.m., the Women of Rotary will entertain Mrs. Lagueux at Ashburn.

Foster S. Chittick is Chairman of the Committee in charge of arrangements for the President's visit. Committee members are: John A. Moore, Marshall A. Wilson and Mrs. Erma Wilson, President of the Women's Rotary Committee.
