

U.N. to Aid Victims of Korean Conflict 161

While the armed forces acting on behalf of the United Nations in Korea continue their efforts to reestablish peace, U.N. has also taken measures to relieve the suffering of millions of civilians left homeless as a result of the conflict. Here, Dr. Kamil Idil, representative of Turkey to the U.N. Commission on Korea (left) visits a refugee center at Pusan, accompanied by Dr. M. Lee (right), Korean interpreter of the Commission and a policeman of the Republic of Korea.

Rotary International President Intrigued With Mountains

Stressing the fact that fellowship and friendship are powerful forces in Rotary, entirely apart from the field of service in the club, Arthur Lagueux, of Quebec City, the first Canadian president of Rotary International for some years, spoke to the Banff club, their wives, representatives of local service clubs and visitors on Thursday evening last week at a dinner in the Mount Royal Hotel, especially arranged in his honor.

Speaking with a very interesting French accent, Mr. Lagueux said that the welcome extended by the Banff club, supported by the unexcelled Banff scenery, was very much appreciated and very much enjoyed by Madame Lagueux and himself.

Mr. Lagueux' office as president of Rotary International will take him away from his business for about a year, during which time he will visit Rotary clubs throughout the continent.

"Many have wondered what it is in Rotary that draws the hearts of men and holds them tight," said Mr. Lagueux, and gave many instances in which fellowship and friendship had proven great factors in the lives of Rotarians. At the start of his address he stated that he did not intend to discuss Rotary in the field of service, but rather would talk of Rotary in the field of fellowship and friendship, 'that all shall love thy neighbor as thyself.' The speaker stated that Rotary leads to fellowship and friendship by first creating within that club an atmosphere of fellowship. Out of this fellowship will surely come friendship. If men sing and laugh together it is easier to smile when they
