At Rotary Convention

Detroit area Boy Scouts present flags of 50 nations to open the first plenary session of the Rotary International convention at Masonic Temple. There are 6,700 delegates from the nations represented by the flags.

Gen. Carlos P. Romulo (left), president of the United Nations General Assembly and Philippines secretary of foreign affairs, told the Rotarians that the moral power of 630,000,000 free Asiatic people "can tip the scales, now perilously balanced, against war and in favor of peace." With the wartime aid to Gen. MacArthur is Richard E. Vernon, new treasurer of Rotary.—News Photos. (See Story on Page 1.)
