HUNTINGTON PARK WINS TOP HONORS

EXTRA! International and District Leaders

Your Best Club and Annual Awards Committee decided to "pull a fast one" this year and prepare the "newspaper" you are now reading. You can be sure that its contents have been kept a deep dark secret and we hope that the idea will prove a helpful innovation.

Listing, announcing and recording of the increasing number of awards, "runners-up", honorable mention winners, etc., has become a major project, and we felt that this official "special edition" would solve a lot of problems.

A copy of the paper will be mailed to every club president and a very few are available on request of the committee.

Your committee is very appreciative of the wonderful cooperation extended to it by all award committees and their chairmen.

Without their help, we could not have done our job, without their help we could not have produced this souvenir.

As chairman, my personal thanks to Secretary Jimmy Walker; Advisor Ken Payne and members John English, Eric Wilcox and Norman Scherer.

ELMER FRANZWA,
Chairman.

George E. Worster

International Director of Rotary International, George E. Worster of the Los Angeles club is one of the most popular and dynamic Rotarians in our district and in all of Rotary International.

A Past President of the Number Five Club and a Past Governor of our District, he has also served on numerous District Advisory Committees, and has served Rotary International conspicuously well as group leader, and speaker, in three successive International Assemblies. He was especially successful at the San Francisco Convention in inducing large groups of meeting leaders for the successful performance of their duties. He has served Rotary International on several International Committees, and has a wide acquaintance and personal friendship among men who have been and are very active in the affairs of RI.

George Worster is a self-made man. He started at the bottom and worked his way to the top of the Yellow Cab Company of Los Angeles. He is an officer and part owner of numerous other companies in San Francisco and Seattle. He is an able executive, and a solid, dependable business man as well as a dynamic and inspiring leader.

G. E. "Edd" Norwood

Of the attention for awards there is no end —with "Service Above Self" the motivating factor, and "The Profit, What We Served Best" the well-defined guiding principle. Service performance is inevitable.

Recognition by others for one's accomplishment is a strong incentive. Of much greater basic value and importance is the individual's recognition of the fact that

"No endeavor is in vain
Its reward is in the doing."

—L. B. Sullivan
One can accept as a natural and logical Rotary concept the following:

"He who is greatest who contributes the greatest original practical example."

—Whitson
and how better can the practical, and therefore, profitable Rotary projects be presented than by exhibiting "Visual Rotary Information and Education" will add greatly to the efficiency of our efforts. Continuing more efficient promotion and the practical application of the "Ideal of Service" can and should be a most satisfactory reward for each and every Rotarian in District 160.

Mr. Lagueux is President of Rotary International for 1950-51. He has been a member of the Rotary Club of Quebec since 1924, a Past President of that Club, and he has served Rotary International as Director, District Governor and as committee chairman and member.

Frank Weirick and His Gang Break All District Records

When the Huntington Park Rotary Club starts out to win a few laurels, they don't go half way!

Winner of the Best Club trophy!
Winner of the Community Service trophy!
Winner of the Youth Service trophy!
Winner of the Vocational Service trophy!
Winner of the Promotion and Publicity trophy!

Before it is over Huntington Park walked off with FIVE of the twelve major awards in this year's race for top honors. No other club in District 160 has come close to this record and Frank and his Huntington Park Rotarians can be properly elated at this record.

Last year's "Best Club" winner, East Los Angeles, wound up with an impressive list in the "runner up" column, but couldn't catch up to the winners, all of whom set a breath taking pace during the year.

Huntington Park, not content with being tops in these five classifications, also won honorable mention certificates or were runners-up in the field of club publication, international service and Rotary information.

Some 350 District Rotarians were in attendance at the Recognition and Award breakfast which was held at the Hotel Huntington on May 4.
