

MRS. ARTHUR LAGUEUX, wife of the president of Rotary International, arrived Friday night by airplane with Mr. Lagueux from the west to attend the Goodwill meeting of Rotary at the Royal Alexandra hotel and spent the week-end as a guest there. Their home is in Quebec City.

Visiting Rotary Ladies Are Guests At Goodwill Dinner

LANGUAGE and the word as indispensable mechanics of human life, but also as a growing power for good and evil, and one which must be known and understood, and watched, was described Saturday, by Mrs. Garnet Coulter when she addressed more than 200 wives of Rotarians at a dinner at the Royal Alexandra hotel.

It was the occasion of a dinner planned to honor wives of Rotarians in Winnipeg to attend the 27th International Goodwill conference Saturday, and was held in the Colonial Room, which was filled to capacity for the affair, one of the largest ever held, according to Mrs. J. W. Tackaberry, wife of the president of Winnipeg Rotary club, who was chairman.

Speaking on, A Word to the Wise, Mrs. Coulter traced the development of words and language, its changes, and warned that words, and the way we use them play an important part in life. Changes in usage, infiltration of new words, and new meanings both sinister and good, should be carefully studied and understood, she pointed out. In the welter of words today, we must find the truths. The unscrupulous user can do with words what we let him, she said.

Mrs. Tackaberry introduced the special honor guests of the evening who included Mrs. Arthur Lagueux of Quebec City, wife of the President of Rotary International, Mrs. Garnet Coulter, wife of Winnipeg's Mayor, Mrs. Richmond Mayson of Prince Albert, Sask., wife of the Governor of 171st District Rotary International, Mrs. T. A. Torgeson, of Estevan, Sask., wife of a Past Canadian Director of Rotary International, Mrs. Archie Gibson, and Mrs. George Wilson, wife of immediate Past President of Winnipeg Rotary club.

In her brief address of welcome Mrs. Tackaberry emphasized the theme of this, the largest Goodwill conference to be held, as for the "advancement of International understanding, goodwill and peace, through a fellowship of business men, united in the ideal of service. This too, she said is the directive for wives of Rotary.

Mrs. Wilson introduced Mrs. Coulter, as Winnipeg's official hostess and as guest speaker. Presentations were made of two handsome china figurines to Mrs. Lagueux and to Mrs. Coulter, by Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Gibson respectively.

Guests were piped to the head table at dinner by a kilted piper, and the National Anthems of Can-
