

ROTARY

CLEVELAND—Arthur Lagueux of Quebec, president of Rotary International, will be the speaker at the Thursday luncheon in the Statler Grand Ballroom. He will discuss a Rotarian's place in world events of 1951.

Lagueux and his wife will be greeted at Cleveland Airport at 6 p. m. Wednesday by A. Z. Baker of Cleveland, a past director of Rotary International, Grant Stone, Cleveland Rotary president, and their wives. A small invitational dinner will be tendered by Baker Wednesday evening, with Rotary district and Cleveland club officers and their wives as guests.

Arch C. Klumph, only Cleveland who is a past president of R. I., will head a reception group for Lagueux at the Thursday luncheon. There are 53 Rotary clubs in northeastern Ohio's District 229, and each has been invited to send representatives.

Mrs. Lagueux will be entertained Thursday noon at a luncheon at the Union Club by Mrs. Klumph and daughters; Mrs. Stanley Watson; Mrs. Fritz McGuire; wives of club officers and directors and wives of past district governors.

Lagueux is president of Lagueux & Des Rochers, Quebec City investment bankers, president of La Sarre Power Co., Ltd., and also of the Financial Building in Quebec City.

HEIGHTS—Fletcher Reynolds, Cleveland zoo director, will show his color film, "Jungle Jaunts," depicting the zoo's 1950 expedition into the jungles, at the club's Thursday dinner.

LAKEWOOD—Luncheon speaker tomorrow, James S. Keller, executive director of Juvenile Delinquency Foundation, Inc. Subject, "Nine-Tentacled Octopus."

EUCLID — Luncheon speaker tomorrow, Clifford G. Owens, principal of Euclid High School. Subject, "Modern Trends of Education Below the College Level."